

The Mini-Franciscans #11

December 15

(keeping in touch during social distancing)

St. Francis Clean-Up Day Success!

Genesis 2:15

Then the Lord God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to cultivate it and keep it.

1 Corinthians 10:26

For the earth is the Lord's, and all it contains.

Matthew 5:5

Blessed are the gentle, for they shall inherit the earth.

Psalms 115:16

The heavens are the heavens of the Lord, But the earth He has given to the sons of men.

Liz reports:

Judy and George picked up sticks and pine cones and blew leaves from the Columbarium.

Stan mowed in the garden.

Mitch raked up pine straw from the canopy roof which Al raked off.

Al blew leaves and debris from the walkways.

Liz cleaned lamps next to the former ivy-covered wall Liz washed dirt off the in-ground slabs in the Columbarium.

Dave tore out ivy vines from the rear of the garden, blew pine needles from among the slabs in the Columbarium, and raked out leaves.

George, Judy, Al, and Mitch all cleared dirt from the grated drain and reengineered the water drain.

Gertie the garter snake supervised!

All enjoyed lunch from Firehouse Subs!

Sharing some "GOOD NEWS" column! A new column continues in the Mini-Franciscans. Please email any "GOOD NEWS" you would like to share to parish@stfrancisgoldsboro.org. It can be little, medium, or big news; makes no difference as long as it is GOOD! We will all celebrate your "GOOD NEWS" with you! So today we celebrate...

- St. Francis received a bequest to help with the upkeep of the garden! The Vestry organized a small task force and they are already doing research to make well informed decisions.

Please remember to email Elaine Elmore at panglophile117@gmail.com if you are willing to serve as a Reader for our ZOOM services.

St. Francis Episcopal Church
PO Box 11406
Goldsboro NC 27532

Left blank for mailing.